NetLab Workshops Price List

Free for DIGHUMLAB Partner institutions

NetLab's Workshops, PhD workshops, and Online Course in Web Archives and Web Archiving are free of charge and as a rule available exclusively to registrants from partner institutions in the DIGHUMLAB initiative in accordance with NetLab's Terms of Service.

The DIGHUMLAB partner institutions are:

The Royal Danish Library, and the faculties of the Humanities at the four universities:
University of Copenhagen,
Aarhus University,
Aalborg University,
University of Southern Denmark.

In some cases, provided that the research in question lies within the disciplines of the Humanities or Social Sciences, admission may also be allowed for researchers from other faculties at the partner universities. Please contact the head of NetLab Professor Niels Brügger for clearance in this case.

Others
